

Montgomery County and Maryland services to help guide or provide services to people with disabilities

Program	Ages Served	Services Provided	How to Refer	Residency Requirement	Services Provided Regardless of Immigration Status?
Jubilee Association of Maryland's Breaking Barriers Program	School-Aged Children and Adults	Helps people with intellectual and developmental disabilities navigate the system to access benefits or support services that they may be eligible for.	Email the Community Navigator at bb@jubileemd.org . You can also call or text directly to 240-621-2750. If you are making a referral, it's best if you share the person's contact info with the Community Navigator so that staff can contact and follow up with the person directly.	Montgomery County	Yes
Autism Waiver Program	Children, ages 1-21	Family consultation, therapeutic integration, respite care, environmental accessibility adaptations, adult life planning and residential habilitation (depending on need).	Families should contact the Autism Waiver Registry at 866-417-3480 to be added to the waitlist to apply for the Autism Waiver when a vacancy occurs. The Registry is a list of individuals interested in Autism Waiver services. The waitlist currently takes about 8-9 years. More information: http://marylandpublicschools.org/programs/Pages/Special-Education/autismfactsheet.aspx	Maryland	No, children must be Medicaid eligible (usually limited to citizens and some permanent residents)
Infants and Toddlers Program	Babies and Toddlers, ages 0-2	Provides evaluation for developmental concerns. Those found with developmental delays are provided comprehensive services.	To apply for services, visit https://referral.mditp.org/ or call the Infants and Toddlers Program at 240-777-3997.
